Dear Friend,

Welcome to the family of God! As a new believer in Jesus, you have just made the most important decision of your life! Jesus said that there’s “joy in heaven over one sinner who repents...” Imagine that! A celebration in heaven happening over your decision to put your faith and trust in the Lord Jesus! Salvation is a gift... truly, a free gift from God. Your sins have been forgiven you and you now have a promise from God, through His Son Jesus that you will live forever with Him in heaven.

Now...you may still have lots of questions about what it means to follow Christ, to live like a Christian and what that’s supposed to look like in your own personal life. Well, Jesus promises that His Holy Spirit will come and live inside you, to teach you truth and love, to guide your every decision, to comfort you, to help you understand who God is, and to show you what His plan is for your life! The Holy Spirit also teaches you how to pray. Prayer is talking to God about everything. It's also an essential part in your relationship with God.

From my heart to yours, this letter is meant to be a further encouragement to you as you begin your new walk with Christ. But, did you know that God also wrote a letter? It's called the Bible. If you don’t have one yet, I encourage you to get one. It is the truest and best spiritual guidebook you will ever have in your life! Read it and study it daily! At the bottom of this letter, you’ll see verses from the Bible where you can read about the things I talked about.

I also encourage you to start attending a church...maybe even go to the one where you heard me speak. It’s vital that your new-found life in Christ is nurtured. A church that is passionate about the Word, about worshiping and serving Christ, and about building up the body is just the place where you can grow strong in your faith. The Bible tells us that as “we have fellowship with one another” we can “walk in the light as He is in the light”. In a community of like-minded believers, your knowledge will increase, you will be encouraged, and you can encourage others.

God bless you, dear friend! I am so excited for you and praise God in your new decision. My prayer for you is that His peace and grace be upon you—that you would grow in your love and service to our King, Jesus Christ, God’s Son!

For His glory,

Nick
